

Part 6 – The Sovereignty of Our God-The Book of Job

Luke 13:1-5 1 At that time some people who were present there told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with the blood of their sacrifices.

2 He said to them in reply, “Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were greater sinners than all other Galileans?

3 By no means! But I tell you, IF you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!

4 Or those eighteen people who were killed when the tower at Siloam fell on them—do you think they were more guilty than everyone else who lived in Jerusalem? 5 By no means! But I tell you, IF you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!”

*“The Book of Job, book of Hebrew scripture that is often counted among the masterpieces of world literature. It is found in the third section of the biblical canon known as the Ketuvim (“Writings”). The book’s theme is the eternal problem of unmerited suffering, and it is named after its central character, Job, who attempts to understand the sufferings that engulf him.*

The Book of Job may be divided into two sections of prose narrative, consisting of a prologue (chapters 1–2) and an epilogue (chapter 42:7–17), and intervening poetic disputation (chapters 3–42:6). The prose narratives date to before the 6th century BCE, and the poetry has been dated between the 6th and the 4th century BCE. C

Job 1:1-22

<sup>1</sup> There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job, and that man was blameless, upright, fearing God, and turning away from evil.

<sup>2</sup> And seven sons and three daughters were born to him.

<sup>3</sup> His possessions also were 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 yoke of oxen, 500 female donkeys, and very many servants; and that man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

<sup>4</sup> And his sons used to go and hold a feast in the house of each one on his day, and they would send and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

<sup>5</sup> And it came about, when the days of feasting had completed their cycle, that Job would send and consecrate them, rising up early in the morning and offering burnt offerings according to the number of them all; for Job said, "Perhaps my sons have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." Thus Job did continually.

<sup>6</sup> Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them.

<sup>7</sup> And the LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?" Then Satan answered the LORD and said, "From roaming about on the earth and walking around on it."

<sup>8</sup> And the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, fearing God and turning away from evil."

<sup>9</sup> Then Satan answered the LORD, "Does Job fear God for nothing?

<sup>10</sup> "Hast Thou not made a hedge about him and his house and all that he has, on every side? Thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land.

<sup>11</sup> "But put forth Thy hand now and touch all that he has; he will surely curse Thee to Thy face."

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power, only do not put forth your hand on him." So Satan departed from the presence of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> Now it happened on the day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house,

<sup>14</sup> that a messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were plowing and the donkeys feeding beside them,

<sup>15</sup> and the Sabeans attacked and took them. They also slew the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

Now I want you to note the first 5 words in the next 3 verses as they are significant.

<sup>16</sup> While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

<sup>17</sup> While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The Chaldeans formed three bands and made a raid on the camels and took them and slew the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

<sup>18</sup> While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house,

<sup>19</sup> and behold, a great wind came from across the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people and they died; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

<sup>20</sup> Then Job arose and tore his robe and shaved his head, and he fell to the ground and worshiped.

21 And he said, "Naked I came from my mother's womb, And naked I shall return there. The LORD gave and the LORD has taken away. Blessed be the name of the LORD."

22 Through all this Job did not sin nor did he blame God.
